

ONE PAGE SUMMARY

Kids Learning > Good Habits > Sharing

What is Sharing

Sharing is Caring: The Joy of Giving!

DEFINITION

Sharing means giving part of what you have to others. It helps build friendships and makes everyone happy.

KEY CONCEPTS

Benefits of Sharing

Sharing can create stronger bonds and make playtime more enjoyable for everyone.

Types of Sharing

You can share toys, food, or even your time with friends and family.

Feelings of Sharing

Sharing can make you feel good inside and help others feel valued.

When to Share

It's important to share during playdates, group activities, or when someone is in need.

Learning to Share

Sharing is a skill that can be practiced and improved over time.

EXAMPLES

- Letting a friend borrow your favorite toy.
- Dividing snacks with classmates during lunch.
- Helping a sibling with their homework.

MEMORY TIPS

- ★ Remember: 'Share' and 'Care' rhyme to connect the ideas.
- ★ Think of the word 'team' - together everyone achieves more when sharing.
- ★ Visualize a circle of friends passing a ball to remember the joy of sharing.

COMMON MISTAKES

- ✗ Thinking sharing means giving away everything you have.
- ✗ Not asking others if they want to share.
- ✗ Being unwilling to share because of fear of losing something.

QUICK RECAP

Sharing is an important habit that helps us connect with others. It involves giving part of what we have to make others happy. Practicing sharing can lead to stronger friendships and a more joyful environment.