> The Greek alphabet consists of 24 letters used in the Greek language. Learning these letters is essential for reading, writing, and pronunciation.

KEY CONCEPTS

Letters Overview

The Greek alphabet has 24 letters, each with a unique sound and form.

Uppercase and Lowercase

Each letter has an uppercase and lowercase version, similar to the English alphabet.

Vowels and Consonants

Greek letters are categorized into vowels (e.g., alpha, epsilon) and consonants (e.g., beta, gamma).

Pronunciation Rules

Each letter has specific pronunciation rules that can change based on context.

Diacritical Marks

Some Greek letters may include diacritical marks that affect pronunciation and meaning.

EXAMPLES

→ Alpha (Α, α) - pronounced like 'a' in 'father'

→ Beta (Β, β) - pronounced like 'b' in 'bat'

→ Gamma (Γ, γ) - pronounced like 'g' in 'go'

MEMORY TIPS

★ Associate each letter with familiar words in English (e.g., Alpha = 'A')

★ Use flashcards to visualize both uppercase and lowercase forms together

★ Create a song or rhyme to remember the order of the letters

COMMON MISTAKES

✗ Confusing similar-looking letters (e.g., Beta and Pi)

✗ Mispronouncing letters due to English influence

✗ Forgetting the diacritical marks when writing
