Master Greek Vocabulary Basics for Everyday Conversations

DEFINITION

> Beginner lessons in Greek vocabulary focus on essential words and phrases for daily use. Learning these basics helps build a strong foundation for communication.

KEY CONCEPTS

Common Nouns

Everyday objects and people, like 'book' (βιβλίο) and 'friend' (φίλος), are essential.

Basic Verbs

Action words like 'to eat' (τρώω) and 'to go' (πηγαίνω) are crucial for sentences.

Adjectives

Descriptive words such as 'big' (μεγάλος) and 'small' (μικρός) enhance vocabulary richness.

Greetings and Farewells

Common phrases like 'hello' (γεια σου) and 'goodbye' (αντίο) are foundational for conversation.

Numbers

Learning numbers (ένα, δύο, τρία) is important for counting and basic transactions.

EXAMPLES

→ Γεια σου! (Hello!)

→ Έχω ένα βιβλίο. (I have a book.)

→ Πόσο κοστίζει; (How much does it cost?)

MEMORY TIPS

★ Associate words with images, like picturing a book for 'βιβλίο'.

★ Create rhymes or songs to remember verb conjugations.

★ Use flashcards with Greek on one side and English on the other.

COMMON MISTAKES

✗ Confusing similar-sounding words, like 'φίλος' (friend) and 'φιλία' (friendship).

✗ Forgetting to match adjectives with the correct noun gender.

✗ Mispronouncing vowels, which can change word meanings.
