Master Basic Indonesian Vocabulary with Ease!

DEFINITION

> Indonesian vocabulary consists of words and phrases used in everyday communication. Learning these basics helps you understand and speak the language effectively.

KEY CONCEPTS

Common Greetings

Learn essential greetings like 'Selamat pagi' (Good morning) and 'Apa kabar?' (How are you?).

Numbers

Familiarize yourself with numbers 1-10 to help with counting and basic transactions.

Everyday Objects

Identify common objects like 'meja' (table) and 'kursi' (chair) to enhance your vocabulary.

Basic Verbs

Understand simple verbs such as 'makan' (to eat) and 'minum' (to drink) for daily activities.

Colors

Learn the names of colors like 'merah' (red) and 'biru' (blue) to describe things.

EXAMPLES

→ Selamat pagi! (Good morning!)

→ Saya suka makan nasi. (I like to eat rice.)

→ Kursi itu berwarna biru. (That chair is blue.)

MEMORY TIPS

★ Associate 'merah' with the color of a red apple.

★ Use rhymes to remember numbers, like 'satu' (one) sounds like 'saw two'.

★ Create flashcards with images for everyday objects to visualize and memorize.

COMMON MISTAKES

✗ Confusing similar-sounding words like 'makan' (eat) and 'minum' (drink).

✗ Forgetting to use proper greetings in conversation.

✗ Mixing up singular and plural forms, like 'buku' (book) vs. 'buku-buku' (books).
