DEFINITION

Italian grammar is the set of rules that govern how words are used in the language. Understanding these rules helps you form correct sentences and communicate effectively.

KEY CONCEPTS

Nouns and Articles

Nouns are words that represent people, places, or things, and they often come with articles that indicate gender and number.

Adjectives

Adjectives describe nouns and must agree in gender and number with the nouns they modify.

Simple Sentences

A simple sentence contains a subject and a verb and expresses a complete thought.

Verbs and Conjugation

Verbs express actions and must be conjugated to match the subject in person and number.

Pronouns

Pronouns replace nouns to avoid repetition and can be subject, object, or possessive.

EXAMPLES

- Il libro è interessante. (The book is interesting.)
- Luca mangia una mela. (Luca eats an apple.)
- Le ragazze sono felici. (The girls are happy.)

MEMORY TIPS

- ★ Visualize nouns as people or objects to remember their gender.

COMMON MISTAKES

- ✗ Confusing masculine and feminine articles.
- ✗ Incorrect verb conjugation based on the subject.
