DEFINITION

> Beginner lessons in Marathi conversation help learners communicate effectively in everyday situations. These lessons focus on essential phrases and vocabulary for simple dialogues.

KEY CONCEPTS

Greetings

Learn basic greetings like 'Namaste' and 'Kasa kay?' to start conversations.

Introductions

Practice introducing yourself and asking others about their names and backgrounds.

Common Questions

Familiarize yourself with essential questions like 'Tula kay hava?' (What do you want?).

Polite Expressions

Use polite phrases such as 'Kripaya' (please) and 'Dhanyavad' (thank you) to sound respectful.

Everyday Vocabulary

Build a basic vocabulary of common nouns, verbs, and adjectives for daily use.

EXAMPLES

→ Namaste! Maza naav [Your Name] aahe.

→ Tula kasa kay? (How are you?)

→ Kripaya, mala madat kara.

MEMORY TIPS

★ Associate 'Namaste' with a hand gesture to remember it as a greeting.

★ Link 'Dhanyavad' with 'thank you' to recall its meaning easily.

★ Visualize a simple conversation scenario to reinforce vocabulary and phrases.

COMMON MISTAKES

✗ Forgetting to use polite expressions in conversations.

✗ Mixing up similar-sounding words like 'kasa' and 'kasa kay'.

✗ Not practicing pronunciation, leading to misunderstandings.
