ONE PAGE SUMMARY

Language Learning › Spanish › Greetings

Beginner lessons for Greetings

Master Basic Spanish Greetings with Ease!

DEFINITION

> Spanish greetings are essential phrases used to say hello and goodbye. They help you connect with others in a friendly way.

KEY CONCEPTS

Hola

This means 'hello' and is used in most situations.

Adiós

'Adiós' means 'goodbye' and is a common way to part ways.

Buenos días

This translates to 'good morning' and is used until noon.

Buenas tardes

'Buenas tardes' means 'good afternoon' and is used from noon until evening.

Buenas noches

This means 'good evening' or 'good night' and is used after sunset.

EXAMPLES

→ Hola, ¿cómo estás?

→ Buenos días, amigo.

→ Adiós, hasta luego.

MEMORY TIPS

★ Associate 'Hola' with 'Hello' to remember it easily.

★ Think of 'Adiós' as 'Adios' in English to recall its meaning.

★ Use the time of day to remember 'Buenos días' for morning.

COMMON MISTAKES

✗ Confusing 'buenas noches' with 'buenas tardes'.

✗ Using 'Hola' in formal situations where 'buenas tardes' is more appropriate.

✗ Forgetting to use accents in words like 'adiós'.

QUICK RECAP

Spanish greetings are vital for starting and ending conversations. Remember the time-specific greetings like 'buenos días' and 'buenas tardes' to use them correctly.